

THINK ONLY OF U. S. NOW, DANIELS SAYS

Secretary Pays Tribute to Stephen A. Douglas at Statue Unveiling.

HE RECALLS DAYS OF '61

Dropping of Partisanship to Help Save Union Is Cited.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 5.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels paid tribute to Stephen A. Douglas at the unveiling to-day of a statue of the statesman in the State Capitol grounds in connection with the centennial celebration of the inauguration of Illinois's first Governor and first General Assembly. The Secretary said in part:

"When a people are at war, partisanship if it is based upon love of country becomes into patriotism. Mr. Douglas had been a partisan of partisanship. Abraham Lincoln had been his political foe. In the moment of the peril of the perpetuity of the Union, Mr. Douglas forgot political considerations, forgot everything but the supreme fact that the United Republic he loved was threatened with separation. In that hour he made full dedication of himself and his powers, rallied the forces of defense of a united republic that should stretch from lakes to gulf and from ocean to ocean.

"In 1861, hurrying to Springfield after a conference with the President, Mr. Douglas addressed the General Assembly and summoned the people to united support of the perpetuity of the nation. The climax of that address, the shortest way to peace is the most stupendous and unanimous preparation for war, is the admonition America has heeded in this day of its participation in the world wide struggle.

"When President Lincoln stood at Gettysburg he asked that we dedicate not that historic ground to the nation but that the nation dedicate itself to the principles of right and justice, which were finally triumphant on that famous field. And we might in the same way dedicate not this memorial to the dead but ourselves to the carrying out of the great example of unselfish patriotism shown by the man honored by this memorial.

"Let us here and now 'highly resolve' to dedicate ourselves to the subordination of everything which can hinder or confuse the minds of our people, which may render uncertain by unfounded doubts and suspicion our fixed determination to win this war through the power of absolutely united effort on the part of every citizen of this country.

"Let us forget of this great man forgot, everything but our country."

NON-PARTISANS HIT BY T. R.'S BIG STICK

League's Group Is Trying to Do What Lenine Did, He Warns.

SIMILAR TO BOLSHEVISM

Tells Montana Audience Organization's Chiefs "Played Game of Sedition."

BELLINGHAM, Mon., Oct. 5.—America cannot afford to accept the lead of any party or of any organization calling itself non-partisan but really acting as a party, which is not first and foremost American and nothing but American, said Col. Theodore Roosevelt to-day in an address to several thousands on behalf of the Fourth Liberty Loan.

"There are real and grave causes for complaint among the farmers here in the Northwest," the former President continued, as he read from a paper of figures which purported to show discrepancies in connection with the prices paid for wheat and in freight rates, but he asserted that "many of the remedies proposed are not only false but mischievous, and very grave harm may be caused by the character of the agitation conducted by some of the men who profess to be seeking these remedies.

State Socialism False Remedy.

"To introduce State Socialism as a relief for these conditions would result in nothing but widespread damage. There should be Federal control of elevators and flour mills with established terminal elevators at convenient points. "When the Non-Partisan League first appeared I was inclined to welcome it, and it was with real reluctance that I was obliged to believe that the leadership that controlled it was of such a character as to threaten this country with evils analogous to those which came from Bolshevism abroad and from I. W. W.ism at home.

"Finally the meeting of the league about a year ago was turned into a show dance of 'the kims within our gates' and it became evident to me that in so far as they dared the most prominent leaders of the league were playing the game of sedition and disloyalty and that they were seeking to acquire power by pandering to and influencing the base spirit of greed and envy and ignorance and class hatred. They are trying to do what Lenine and Trotsky have done to Russia.

Pro-Germans Its Friends.

"The I. W. W. leaders have been convicted of disloyalty and yet it was to the head of this organization, W. D. Haywood, that the secretary of the Non-Partisan League wrote on April 5, 1917, a letter in which he spoke of 'this damned war business.' "There isn't a German abroad or a pro-German at home who does not wish success to the Non-Partisan League as at present controlled, and to the I. W. W."

The speaker advocated the recognition of the Jugo-Slavs, Armenians, Poles and other oppressed nationalities, as well as the Czech-Slovaks. "We must not expect from a league of peace more than it can do," said Col. Roosevelt, "nor ourselves promise more than we can perform; and we must never forget that such a league to enforce peace or league of nations must be treated as an addition to, and under no circumstances as a substitute for, the preparing of our own defense. Uncle Sam must in the last analysis rely on himself for his safety and not on scraps of paper signed by others."

The police of Mount Vernon are looking for a German who walked into the Public Library yesterday and mutilated eight books bearing on American military power, valued at about $100. The library authorities thought perhaps he scattered or attempted to scatter disease bacteria in the reading room.

"The Furs that Heighten Woman's Charm."

As all textiles, especially woollens, are so scarce and high, Furs are taking their place to a wide extent.

Furs themselves are advancing—due to manufacturing and other heavy expense, coupled with the demands of fashion, economy and necessity.

Therefore, in every respect, early purchases are to be recommended.
